Insurance Authority

Law360 Insurance Authority dives deep into insurance law through the lens of three prominent insurance areas. Written by experts for experts, Law360 Insurance Authority hones in on the trends and developments that insurance specialists need to know, as well as how it impacts their business and clients.

Property

- Litigation over coverage for property damage caused by fires or natural disasters, or business interruption losses due to COVID-19
- Litigation against auto insurers that have disputed uninsured and underinsured motorist claims, including subsequent bad faith lawsuits
- Property insurance legislation and regulation
- Regulatory enforcement actions against general liability insurers

General Liability

- Litigation over coverage for product liability lawsuits and “personal and advertising injury” claims against policyholders
- Multi-year and/or multi-policy coverage disputes
- Coverage disputes over property damage, construction defect or bodily injury claims arising from building or renovation projects
- Regulatory enforcement actions against general liability insurers

Specialty Lines

- Litigation over coverage for data breaches, ransomware attacks, and other cybersecurity incidents under specialized cyber insurance policies
- Litigation over coverage for C-suite insurance lines, namely directors and officers, professional liability and errors, and omissions policies
- New privacy and data security legislation and regulations
- Regulatory enforcement actions against cyber insurance carriers and Insurtech companies
